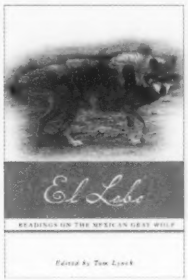
Dry Borders

Great Natural Reserves of the Sonoran Desert
Edited by Richard Stephen Felger and Bill Broyles

This evocative and informative excursion into the Sonoran Desert along the U.S.-Mexico border brings to life the beauty of a spare and seductive terrain, telling the stories of the people, plants, and politics that layer a landscape in need of understanding and protection.

321 b&w photographs, 80 color photographs, 27 illustrations, 5 maps

Paper $45.00
Also available in Cloth $80.00



El Lobo

Readings on the Mexican Gray Wolf
Edited by Tom Lynch

After roaming the desert Southwest for thousands of years, the Mexican gray wolf was, almost in the blink of an eye, driven to the brink of extinction. Including essays by Aldo Leopold, Rick Bass, and Sharman Apt Russell, El Lobo explores how this subspecies of wolf was brought so close to the edge of annihilation.
